

TORN OUT BY GAS

A Terrific Explosion in a Detroit Store

BLOWS OUT AN ENTIRE FRONT

Several Persons Are Badly Hurt—Windows Broken a Block Away.

News of the State.

DETROIT, April 19.—A gas explosion occurred in Teuton, McWilliams & Co.'s grocery, corner Woodbridge and Second streets, this morning, blowing out the front of the store, injuring several people and breaking the windows in other stores for a block away.

The explosion occurred about 10.15. The leaking gas pipes were located underneath the front part of the store and had only been disconnected this morning. All three members of the firm were in the store and Mr. Monahan, the "company" of the concern, was waiting for Mr. Bain when he was precipitated almost into the cellar and found himself astride a joint in the floor, with dried apples, lard and butter surrounding him in profusion.

KILLED HER OWN DAUGHTER.

Desperate Act of Stanton Woman Who Suicided.

STANTON, Mich., April 19.—The wife of Wesley Hoy, a farmer living near Bushnell, has been mentally deranged for some months, and has several times attempted suicide of late. She took poison about two weeks ago, administering some of the drug to her 9-year-old daughter, Ethel, as well, but the discovery of her rash deed made it possible to prevent her design by summoning medical assistance. She afterwards expressed regret over this attempt at murder and suicide and her husband was convinced that it would not be repeated.

Last Friday, however, she tried to cut her throat with a butcher's knife, but her son Bert took the weapon away from her. Saturday Mr. Hoy visited Frank and on his return found his wife away from home. A search showed that her desire for death had at last been attained. The dead bodies of the woman and her daughter were found in the mud and water of a marshy locality in the woods. She had thrown herself into the place over the body of the girl, and by weighting her dress with stones and holding her head below the surface had succeeded, apparently with much difficulty, in drowning herself.

MICHIGAN ROYAL ARCANUM.

The Grand Lodge is in Session at Lansing—Officers' Reports.

LANSING, April 19.—The Grand Council of the Royal Arcanum of Michigan, assembled in annual session in the senate chamber at 10 a. m. today. The report of the Grand Regent Parish congratulates the order upon its progress and present condition.

He also recommends that a sum not exceeding $2500 be set apart for the salary and expenses of persons who may be designated to do work as deputy grand regents. The report of the grand secretary shows the membership in the state to be 5733, a net increase during the year of 306. The membership is distributed among 71 councils.

The report of the grand treasurer shows the receipts for the year to have been $6,332.15 and the disbursements $6,043.63, which with the amount on hand at the beginning of the year leaves a balance in the treasury of $5,329.71. The session will continue through tomorrow. There will be a public reception in Baird's opera house this evening, and the annual election of officers will occur tomorrow.

PRINCE MICHAEL AGAIN.

His Counsel Fighting for Delay in the Rowlinson Case.

DETROIT, April 19.—Prince Michael and his "spiritual" wife, Eliza Courts, and a number of long-haired brethren, were in the police court this morning. When the case against the Rowlinson charges Michael with assault, and Eliza Courts with aiding and abetting him, counsel asked for an adjournment and Justice Haug set the hearing at 2 o'clock this afternoon. When Prince Michael and Eliza Courts were taken back to jail the usual large crowd gathered around and indulged in cries and yells, but no violence was offered.

Another Squawbuck Oversight.

LANSING, April 19.—Another defect is contended for in the "squawbuck" franchise tax (and of 1891, and the supreme court is asked for a construction of the Central Oil Gas Storage company, a corporation organized under the laws of Maine with a capital of $1,500,000, desires to locate in Michigan with an office at Jackson, and filed articles of association with the secretary of state, and tender a fee of $3, but the secretary refuses to file them without the full franchise tax of $750 under act 182 of the laws of 1891. Application is made for a mandamus to compel the filing without the tax, the contention of the company being that the law makes no mention of foreign corporations and is not intended to apply to them. An order to show cause was granted.

General State News. William Colby, who murdered Richard Cook at Marine City last Saturday night, pleaded guilty to murder and was sentenced to Jackson for twenty years. His confession goes to show that his crime was one of the most brutal on record. The judge, before passing sentence, said to him: "Was Cook looking at you when you struck him with the neckyoke?" Prisoner—"Yes, sir." Judge—"Did Cook beg for his life?" Prisoner—"Yes, sir." Judge—"You wanted to be sure that you killed him?" Prisoner—"That's what."

Monday afternoon Mrs. John Smith of Coldwater, a widow aged 33 years, committed suicide at the home of her parents in Algonsee township. The deed was deliberate and premeditated, as she unfastened her clothes, stood before a mirror, placed a revolver to her body and fired, the ball passing through her heart, death resulting almost instantly. When found she lay across the foot of a bed, the revolver lying on a dresser four feet away. The supposed cause was dependency over business affairs.

Daniel Taylor, for years a prominent farmer of Eckford township, Calhoun county, and who but two weeks ago moved into this city, was found dead in his barn by a neighbor about 7:30 o'clock Monday morning. The marks of a horse's hoof just over his heart indicated the cause of his death and the wain he carried having stopped at 7:30 showed that he was kicked while caring for his animals. Mr. Taylor leaves a grown son and two daughters to mourn his death.
